New Haven, Oct. 14 .- The Yale varsity quarterback, Dewindt: left halfback took a brace this afternoon and held the Overton; right halfback, Blodgett and Jones; fullback, Payson. Two touchscrubs scoreless, while they ran up four touchdowns for a total score of 27. Tofirst fifteen minutes of the workout, more substitutes were sent into the day's scrimmage was the third of the week. It lasted, with only a short letup. for an hour and a half.

The long, hard scrimmages held in preparation for the Notre Dame game Saturday are taking their toll. A good sized contingent of injured players followed the aration game to-day from the side lines. Chatfield-Taylor, a halfback, did not appear in uniform because he is suffering with a wrenched knee. Church, who played at end in the Virginia game, was out of the game to-day with a bad wrist. Von Holt, the regular right tackle, who broke a small bone in his left wrist ten days ago, is progressing rapidly and will report for work in another week, it is thought. Violett, who played at left halfback on the scrubs, suffered a bump on his head in making a tackle in scrimmage to-day and was taken to the New Haven hospital, where he will rest until he recovers from the shock. J. Sheldon, varsity guard, did not practice to-day, owing to slight hurt.

Scoville, who played a star game at Scoville, who played a star same at Dartmouth two years ago, caused a sensation when he ran almost the length of the field for two touchdowns from the kickoffs. His work in eluding would be

HANOVER, N. H., Oct. 14 .- The Dart-

Hanover, N. H., Oct. 14.—The Dartmouth varsity had a touch of its traditional ill fortune to-day when the close of practice found Curtis, Whitney and Murdock, the first string backs; Milmore, centre: Duhamel, one of the most promising of the back field candidates: Smith, guard, and Vinson, a haifback possibility, all disabled on the bench at the closing period of a long secret practice. Of these only Duhamel, Whitney and Smith by any chance can get into shape for the Vermont game Saturday.

To-day's practice included a forty-five minute scrimmage against the second team, in which the varsity scored a touchdown and a goal from the field. Ghe cut loose one of his brilliant quarterback runs in the first five minutes of scrimmage and scuttled behind a masked interference twenty-five yards for a touchdown. Pudrith kicked the goal and some time later put a neat field goal from placement over the bar from the 36 yard line. The second team did not score, though it falled only by inches to force the varsity to a safety in the last period. by inches to force the varsity to a safety in the last period.

MIDDLETOWN, Conn., Oct. 14.—Wesleyan will enter the game with Brown of Providence to-morrow without her captain, Dan Kenan, who broke a bone in his shoulder in the Union game Saturday. Hingeley will take Kenan's place at fullback and Crafts may be called upon to do the punting which his chief has been doing. Without Capt. Kenan the team is likely to display the lack of scoring power which has marked its work thus far. The line will be intact and will be in the best shape it has been this year. The only position which seems to be in doubt now is centre, where Eaton and Thompson are fighting it out. Brown and Wesleyan did not meet last fall. The year previous, when Jake High, the old Brown fullback, who, with his teammates, Sprackling and McKay, belped his alma mater put a 21 to 0 kibosh upon Yale in 1910, was coach at Wesleyan, the Cardinal and Black defeated Brown at Providence, 7 to 6.

Policeman Guesses Twice: Both Wrong

C. FRANK MacCARTHY, stroke of the 1914 Columbia champion crew and hero in the recent University Hall fire, had his pride bumped generously last night while standing at 116th street and Amsterdam avenue. A policeman, who proved to be a willing aid to conversation, was standing near Mac, and asked the crew's savior how he liked Columbia now that he was a sophomore. "I'm not a sophomore," replied Mac. Before he could add that he had been on the campus four years the cop scented he was on the wrong track, and retaliated with: "Oh, excuse me; I thought you were here last year."

Cornell Works by Electric Light.

ITHACA, Oct. 14.—Secret practice for the balance of the week is the programme in the Cornell football campaign announced to-day by Head Coach Sharpe. The entire squad toiled until late this evening under the glare of the electric lights, getting more than an hour's practice that would not have been possible had the men played out of doors.

In line plunging the work was as good as it was in the open. Stillman, varsity right end, ran twenty-five yards through the scrub for a tally and Duryee planted the leather behind the goal posts for the leather behind the goal posts for the fourth tally on a line plunge. Guernsey kicked two goals and Easton one.

Ainsworth's ability to scrimmage to day was a source of satisfaction to the coaches. His work was fast and clean. Legore, who started the scrimmage at fullback, showed up well too. A feature of his play was a twenty-five yard run around left end.

Here wening under the glare of the electric lights, getting more than an hour's practice than an hour's practice than who here possible had the men played out of doors.

Owing to the unsettled conditions of the backfeld this week no definite line of the game against the Millitary Academy team the midshipmen are to continued in the varsity backfield, Hill and Philippi laying off for a rest. It is probable that Shuler will play left half-back Saturday, but Hill may return to the lineup. Barrett rejoined the team and of his play was a twenty-five yard run around left end.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 14.—Coach George Carlisle, Pr., Oct. 14 .- Coach Warner

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 14.—The Harrand Cooches were not able to get a great deal out of their varsity team to-day in spite of the hard driving in scrimanage against the scrubs. Playing more than three-quarters of an hour without a let up, the first string was unable to score or, in fact, get inside the scrubs' 20 yard line. The second team's attack also made little headway. The day was spent on straight football, the variety that was able to drive Washington and Jefferson back forty yards for a touchdown in last Saturday's game.

Eddie Mahan was on the field to-day and showed no lameness. He will not play for some time yet, but mless he is hurt again Harvard surely will have him for the game against Michigan.

Philladdelphila, Oct. 14.—Coach George Brooke seems to be hoodooed with the Penn team. Charles Corley Hays, right halfback of Fordham Prep's football team, died yesterday morning in St. Francis Hospital, Jersey City. He was injured while playing at the West Side baseball grounds on Monday afternoon in a game between Fordham and St. Peter's High School of Jersey City. The youth suffered a rupture of the intestines. Young Hays had just intercepted a forward pass when he was tackled by a number of St. Peter's players and went down.
